Talking It Over

Intelligent operators have learned that the one and only way to enjoy better collections is to merchandise their operating.

This can be done in a myriad of intelligent fashions. But, the one and only method which does work, and has been proved to work best, is the method whereby the operator, by showing the location that he can, and does, know how to merchandise his operating (the sale of automatic music to the general public) and do it in such fashion that both he and the owner of the location enjoy more income.

Those ops who have used every better merchandising method have been able to maintain high collection averages. They have shown constant increases and have gone on ahead with new equipment, with better sounding machines, and have entered into all the new ideas which have been proposed.

An operator just the other day wrote that he hasn't yet felt (and doesn't expect to feel) any drop in collections. "In fact," he writes, "we've been going right along enjoying better collections."

The answer is, of course, this is one operator who "thinks." That's mighty important. For example one method he uses is to bring single channel wired music right into his present juke boxes and sell this sort of music as "background music" to the location owner with the patron actually paying for it.

The patron chooses it for he obtains "six minutes for five cents." In short, just about double (and in some cases more than double) the amount of music he gets from the average recording. That's a bargain.

The storekeeper likes it because he tells this operator, "It's soothing dinner music." It is. It's semi-classical. It's amazing how the meter spins to the very limit with each collection.

In fact, this op doesn't know how many plays he's getting. "We can't tell," he writes, "because all we know is that the meter wheel is at the limit at each collection."

But, he didn't stop there. He has menus printed with the message, "Give your waitress 5c and she'll play your favorite tune for you." He claims, "You'd be surprised how many extra nickels we take in this way."

He goes further. He has his top ten tunes featured in the windows of some of his locations. A large hand painted sign (which costs him only 50c by the way) tells the passerby that he can listen to the greatest artists, Vaughn Monroe, Perry Como, Frank Sinatra, Bing Crosby, Frankie Laine, etc., etc., inside for only 5c. That has helped, he's certain. Just how much, he doesn't know.

He also works right with the patrons on songs they like to hear by having small request cards whereon the patron can write the songs he'd like to hear in the automatic music system in the location.

And, here's what's most important to every music operator. He's getting $10 per week front money from all of his locations. (In fact, in some spots he gets even more.) And, yet, each location owner is happy and satisfied.

JUKE BOX LEADERS WILL URGE CLOSE KNIT NAT'L OPS' ASSN.

Will Make Proposal at Coin Show for All Local Assns. to Join in a More Closely Knit National Organization. Meeting May be Held Prior to Opening of Convention by Local Assn. Heads to Iron Out Wrinkles. Will Ask Geo. A. Miller to Continue at Helm. Urge Retaining Present "Automatic Music Operators of America" Name.

George A. Miller is Executive Manager of the California Music Operators Association as well as National Chairman of the Music Operators of America. His work in public relations as well as organizational efforts in behalf of automatic music operators have won great acclaim thruout the nation. He is constantly being called upon to speak before groups of music operators thruout the country. He is well known for his diplomatic and completely efficient work in behalf of all the associations and operators who are members of the Music Operators of America. Noted music operator leaders will ask that he be retained at the helm of the Music Operators of America at the forthcoming election meeting in Chicago during the CMI convention.

A move is already afoot by noted juke box leaders who have been corresponding and phoning each other for sometime regarding the strengthening of MOA (Music Operators of America) which was created at the 1948 convention with 68 noted juke box leaders from member associations and a Board of Directors headed by George A. Miller of CMOA (California Music Operators Association) as National Chairman.

Since then problems have arisen which have brought into the open the need for the fullest possible representation by this national organization.

MOA, as is well known in the juke box industry, was originally created for the purpose of watching national legislation in the automatic music field.

Since then, juke box leaders have noted that when questioned as to whether the group is "completely representative of all in the juke box industry," they have been forced on the defensive in this regard.

This, it is hoped, will be overcome by a more tightly knit organization. These men are of the belief that this can be accomplished at the meetings which will be held at this forthcoming CMI convention in January, 1949, when all representative executives of MOA will be present.

It is planned that there may be a meeting, prior to the opening of the convention meetings which have already been announced, where the Board of Directors of all the member associations of MOA will come together to iron out any wrinkles which may come to the surface regarding a more closely knit national organization. Such a group can also include all independent juke box ops where there are no music guilds or associations in being at the present time.

Leaders of the juke box industry from many sections of the nation will ask George A. Miller of Oakland, Calif., to continue at the helm of Music Operators of America.

His work this past year has won a great deal of praise from all those who have been in close contact with him. Miller, it is agreed, is the best man for the job and should, therefore, continue as National Chairman of MOA.

There is also no doubt that more member organizations will enter MOA at the forthcoming convention. Some of these were created during the past year. Others are being formed at this time.

The hope is that the officers of these new local associations will be present at the CMI convention in Chicago when meetings will be held by MOA and will join with the national group.

One well known president of a large music operators' association stated, "There is no longer any doubt of the fact that every music operator in the nation realizes the very vital need of organization.

"This past year the music industry has gone thru one of its most chaotic period. The men want to get together. They want to feel that there is one organization at work for them for they are not in the position to do themselves the good they must at this time.

"They have their hands full individually trying to get over the hump. These men should make it their business to be present at the Music Operators of America meetings."

All are agreed at this time, too, that the organization will prove of great value in the formation of local associations. This will be proposed at the meetings to be held in Chicago.

A committee will be urged to help music operators in any part of the nation to get together. The members of the committee will make it their business, according to present plan, to speak before groups, where called upon to do so, and show the way that a local association or music guild can be formed.

In the meantime, local association leaders will bend every possible effort to form a more closely knit national group and will try to have all the facts presented at the forthcoming meetings of MOA in Chicago during the convention.

Diskers Meet To Plan National Distribution Of Records To Disk Jockeys

NEW YORK—Representatives of the nation's top recording companies met with New York disk jockeys here recently in an effort to plan a wider and more effective distribution of records to dee-jays.

The committee elected Martin Block, WNEW, New York, as chairman and set plans for future meetings. The main purpose of the meeting was to evolve a plan whereby all dee-jays in the nation would be covered with records. It was pointed out too frequently jockeys with a wider listening audience receive dozens of copies of recordings from all those parties interested in the platter, i.e., the press agent, record company, artist, distributors, etc. With planned disk distribution and an organization to run it, the above incident would not arise.

Among those present at the meeting were: George Goodwin, publisher of Music Business Magazine; Frank O'Donnell of RCA-Victor; Jules Braun of King-DeLuxe Records; Dick Link of Capitol Records; Dan Priest of Signature; Al Millet of Harmonia; Frank Walker of MGM, and Irving Berman of Manor Records.

Musicraft Records File Bankruptcy Petition Under Chandler Act. Torme Leaves Firm.

NEW YORK—Musicraft Records Inc. and its subsidiaries this past week filed petition for bankruptcy under the provisions of Chapter XI of the Chandler Act.

The firm was forced to make this move, a spokesman for the plattery declared, because of several creditors who did not approve of the diskery's plans for reorganization. It was further learned that the court had recognized the present Musicraft administration and would allow those executives to remain in their positions.

Reorganization plans, mainly centering around the rumored entrance of orchestra leader Guy Lombardo into the firm, continued at a brisk pace this past week, it was learned. Lombardo's pact with Decca Records ran out recently, and it was reported that the latter was conferring with Decca top-per Jack Kapp with regard to a new contract.

Musicraft Distributors Inc. and Olympic Records Inc., subsidiary firms of the parent Musicraft Record Company Inc., were also involved in the petition for bankruptcy. Musicraft Distributors is the New York distrib branch of the plattery, while the latter was the firm's Los Angeles pressing outlet. The distributing firm listed liabilities of $127,242 and assets of $103,891. The Olympic organization listed liabilities of $452,277 and assets of $270,959. The parent company, Musicraft Records Inc., is listed as a creditor of $106,261 against the distrib outlet and $356,332 lodged with the pressing company. Terms of the petition propose payment of all claims in full, payable 10 per cent in cash and the balance in three equal annual in-

Mercury Records Pact Golden Gate Quartet

NEW YORK—Mercury Records Inc. this past week concluded arrangements with several recording artists and announced the contract signing of the Golden Gate Quartet, chirps Kitty Kallen and Madelyn Russell.

The Golden Gate Quartet formerly recorded for Columbia while Miss Kallen had several platters with Musicraft. Miss Russell has worked as a band thrush with Vaughn Monroe, Tommy Tucker and other bands.

The plattery also disclosed that they had renewed their recording contract with thrush Dinah Washington, currently riding hot with "Am I Asking Too Much" and "It's Too Soon To Know."

stallments. It should be noted that the above procedure is customary under the provisions of Chapter XI of the Chandler Act.

Meanwhile trade circles reported that Mel Torme, a Musicraft recording artist, had been lost by the diskery. It is common knowledge that Torme, thru his manager Carlos Gastel, has been trying to break his contract with Musicraft for quite some time. The plattery reportedly owed some $18,000 in back royalties. Musicraft execs are supposed to have forfeited the Torme contract since payment could not be made. Gastel is rumored to be holding the diskery responsible for the back royalties, altho the contract had been destroyed.

Rumors in the past, associating Torme with Capitol Records, were given new life this past week. The Capitol artist and repertoire division is known to have been keen on signing Torme for quite some time. Other artists in the Gastel stable, Peggy Lee, Nellie Lutcher and the Nat "King" Cole Trio, record for Capitol Records.

Laine Scores In Canada!

NEW YORK—Balladeer Frankie Laine really took Canada by storm on his recent one night tour junket. Laine worked one hour a night, while local bands furnished orchestral background music. Laine took in some 16,000 odd dollars at the end of six one-niters. Laine's Toronto date sold out to more than 6,000 persons, with the house sold out way in advance.

MUSIC OPERATORS RENEW FIGHT FOR TITLE STRIPS AND RECORD RETURN PRIVILEGE

NEW YORK—The nation's music machine operators this past week vigorously renewed their efforts for return of printed title strips and a record return privilege which had been granted them prior to the war.

Altho competition in the record industry has been much tighter in recent months, juke box operators point out that they have been buying more records than ever before. The lack of printed title strips in music machines throughout the nation is causing the record industry a loss in sales and is hurting recording artists.

One well noted music machine operator in the East this past week stated, "I've been in locations that normally would do a land-office juke box business. I've seen customers walk up to the phonograph and then turn away, merely because they did not know what the devil was on the machine. If the recording companies do not wish to promote their artists and their labels thru the use of printed title strips, that situation is perfectly okay with the music ops. We can write the name of the song in just as well. The record company, tho, will find that they are losing juke box sales, and their artists will find a greater lack of attention focussed on their particular recording."

Music operators have made repeated efforts to dress up their machines by buying title strips and a great many will undoubtedly continue to do so.

Platteries throughout the nation will find that their sales will increase tho, by giving music ops title strips free with each and every record purchase.

It is known that an intense campaign is being waged by many music ops in several of the nation's larger cities, to request the nation's phonograph record manufacturers to service them with title strips.

Operators also indicated that they would ask record manufacturers for the same record return privilege being granted retail dealers. This condition has long been aggravated insofar as the nation's juke box operators are concerned. Music operators are not granted any return privilege of any sort on records purchased, whereas most dealers are granted a 5% return. Although several of the indie labels have given ops a return privilege, the number of companies cooperating are not sufficient to warrant the ops easing their request.

With the record sales market "down" in the retail field, and more phonograph record manufacturers concentrating on juke box operator sales, these same firms have not shown any indication of cooperating with the ops to any great extent. More platteries than ever before have aimed their sales programs at the juke box market, realizing that the ops contribute a tremendous portion of the total sales volume of the disk industry.

"You Can Die From A Broken Heart" (2:44)

"Give Me This Night" (2:50)

MACK CAMPBELL—THE DREAM DUSTERS
(Collegiate 2052)

Some wax for music ops to listen in to is offered here in effective styling by piper Mack Campbell and The Dream Dusters. Stuff is fair and suited to the needs of the tavern spots. Top deck, tagged "You Can Die From A Broken Heart" is done up in dry voice by Mack with rhythm backing him. Piano in the background aims the ditty at the elbow-rest spots all the more. On the flip, the Dream Dusters step out on "Give Me This Night," a slow, hearts and flowers piece that might stir up some coin play. Wax can be used as a filler item—nothing more.

"My Heart Stood Still" (2:48)

"Thou Swell" (2:14)

GUY LOMBARDO ORCH.
(Decca 24522)

Maestro Guy Lombardo on deck with a pair of old favorites, and some wax that music ops can use to excellent advantage. The beautiful flavor of "My Heart Stood Still" and "Thou Swell," offered in smooth, full fashioned Lombardo style seep thru the platter in dainty musical expressions that satisfy. Piper Billy Leach grabs the lead on the top deck and turns in an able performance. Song is one that garnered a slew of coin not too long ago. On the flip "Thou Swell," the Lombardo Trio purr the soothing lyrical expressions in smooth manner. Both tunes are show pieces and should be well remembered. The many Lombardo fans should go wild with this duo.

"Red Lips And Red Wine" (2:48)

"The Ski Polka" (2:45)

JOHNNY EAGER
(Grand 25011)

Johnny Eager into the vocal spotlight again with a fresh tune that has loads of winning potential for music operators. Wax is highly attractive and should prove to be an impressive phono item. Ditty, titled "Red Lips and Red Wine" spills in mellow fashion, with Johnny's fond vocal spot shining all the way. There's no doubt about the lad having a fine voice—just listen in and you'll agree. Tempo rolls along in sprightly fashion and is suitable for a zillion locations. On the flip with "The Ski Polka" Johnny comes back with a cute bit done up in effective polka time. Top deck should grab the moola.

DISK OF THE WEEK

"Powder Your Face With Sunshine" (2:11)

"One Sunday Afternoon" (3:08)

EVELYN KNIGHT
(Decca 24530)

There's no stopping this gal! Following up her current success with "A Little Bird Told Me," chirp Evelyn Knight really goes hog wild for a barrel-full of moola with this piece. It's a cinch to clinch with phono fans everywhere. Ditty, tagged "Powder Your Face With Sunshine" is tailor made for the juke box trade and should garner jitney by the ton. Song makes you light up right from the very first listening. Driving, toe-tapping rhythm, with a vocal chorus to add to the brilliance of this platter makes it sure-fire all the more. Sprightly patter and tempo of the tune makes you get up and dance a jig along with it. And then that mellow whistling chorus should have music fans from six to sixty get up and hum, whistle and stomp along with this piece. Song has everything all rolled into one. On the flip with another potential winner, Evelyn goes all out again on "One Sunday Afternoon" the title song of Warner Brothers picture of the same name. Ditty weaves in slow tempo, with a vocal chorus bouncing in once again in top notch manner. We like "Powder Your Face With Sunshine"—we're sure you will too. Don't miss this hunk of wax—run out and load up!

"Powder Your Face With Sunshine" (2:50)

"At The Gay County Fair" (2:48)

DICK BYRON
(Dana 2031)

More top notch wax, and a ditty that is going to be right up there—but pronto. It's Dick Byron in the spotlight vocalizing to the mellow strains of "Powder Your Face With Sunshine." Stuff has loads of beat and drive in it and is sure to be among the nation's most requested tunes in no time at all. Wax makes for great listening pleasure, with Dick turning in an able performance. On the flip with a cute piece in "At The Gay County Fair," Dick and The Wayfarers come back with more first rate music. Lyrics beat a path around the title and should grab some heavy moola. Listen in!

"Nighty-Night" (2:40)

"My Confession" (2:50)

RALPH FONT ORCH.
(MGM 10322)

Pair of sides styled in the Latin vein, with maestro Ralph Font at the ivories on "Nighty-Night" and "My Confession." Both sides feature the maestro's piano tinkling in light, bright fashion. Top deck is an unusual and novel rendition of this quaint old standard. Stuff is suited for the crowd who love to shake slowly but surely. Flip has the orkster in the spotlight again, with the rest of the bank backing him up in fair fashion. Ops who have the spots that go for this brand of music might do well to listen in.

"Siesta" (3:17)

"In Santiago, Chile" (2:57)

XAVIER CUGAT ORCH.
(Columbia 38368)

Music styled in the Latin tempo and the scintillating rhythms of the Xavier Cugat ork are brought to excellent light with this pair tagged "Siesta" and "In Santiago, Chile." Topside should draw loads of raves. Ditty has been widely recorded already, with this version undoubtedly one of the best around. Vocal spot by piper Bob Graham, with the entire ork to wail the title makes for fond listening pleasure. Beautiful instrumental patter throughout the ditty is extremely fashionable and should find wide appeal among all music fans. On the backside with another Latin styled piece, Bob Graham bounces back to render "In Santiago, Chile." Lyrics flow around the title, while the light, bright tempo seeps thru in dainty manner. Both sides should excite the Cugat fans.

"Hold Me" (2:59)

"I Wanna Go Where You Go,
Then I'll Be Happy" (2:35)

PEGGY LEE
(Capitol 15298)

The lusty vocal warbling of thrush Peggy Lee puts this gal into the spotlight once again behind a pair of tunes that should meet with excellent reception from music operators from Maine to California. The gal's warm and invigorating style is hard to match on any given tune, let alone this duo. Her refreshing vocal style on "Hold Me," an oldie currently being revived, is really something to listen to. The gal's strong and winning pipes wrap around the sincere lyrics in fine manner, with backing by Dave Barbour and his crew beating thru mellow. It's slow, tempting stuff offered in plush, velvet style and sung only as Peggy can sing it. On the coupling with another oldie in "I Wanna Go Where You Go," Peggy and the boys pick up the metro to send ops a great piece of wax. Song is one that went like wild fire years ago—we see no reason for it not clicking today, especially with this rendition in the offing for ops. Both sides should boost ops take sky-high. Climb on the bandwagon!

"Everywhere" (3:04)

"The Goof And I" (2:49)

WOODY HERMAN ORCH.
(Columbia 38369)

The orchestral patter of the great Herman Herd and some great music for juke box fans to latch on to. Listeners are bound to marvel at this disk-ing of "Everywhere" with the mellow Bill Harris hogging the limelight throughout. It's a trombone solo rendered in plu-perfect manner, with loads of sharp beat and top notch driving rhythm to boot. Harris' spot on this piece is hard to beat—it should serve to focus a ton of attention upon him. On the flip with more instrumental wax, the entire gang get together for "The Goof And I." Stuff is mellow and in pitch all the way, with a short but great clary spot by the maestro. Get with "Everywhere" by all means—but pronto.

"Nearest Thing To Heaven" (3:02)

"Break My Heart" (2:59)

VERA LYNN
(London 328)

Pair of sides by chirp Vera Lynn, ably backed by the Bob Farnon ork and the set up of "Nearest Thing To Heaven" and "Break My Heart." Both tunes show the gal's voice in effective styling, and altho they won't stop traffic, they make for fairly decent filler items. Top deck, titled "Nearest Thing To Heaven" is a sentimental tune offered in pleasing voice by Vera. Stuff is in the deep vein, with the lyrics strongly rendered throughout. On the flip, Vera bounces back with a Billy Reid ditty which may grab on. Tune is done up in strong manner and is there for the asking. Ops who have a call for this brand might listen in.

Record Reviews

"Do You Ever Think Of Me" (2:51)

"Ramona" (2:10)

GORDON MacRAE
(Capitol 15304)

● Pair of oldies by the rising popular Gordon MacRae and the music of "Do You Ever Think Of Me" and "Ramona" seeping thru the wax. Top deck, is done up in very pleasant manner, with Gordon's affectionate pipes spilling the vocal chorus in bright style. First chorus spills in slow tempo with the balance picked up to a rhythmic, bouncy metro that satisfies. On the flip with a ditty that scored heavily many moons ago, Gordon delivers "Ramona" in the very best of style. Song is one that is easily taken to. Music ops should remember this one. Musical backing by the Carlyle Hall ork is in there pitching mellow throughout both sides of the platter. The many MacRae fans should go for this duo.

"To Make A Mistake Is Human"
(3:06)

"In My Dreams" (3:01)

ELLA FITZGERALD
(Decca 24529)

● The great Ella Fitzgerald, hard to match on any tune, sets with a pair here that should have her heard climbing after this cookie but pronto. It's great tonsiling by Ella, on a tune that is currently attracting wide attention. Titled "To Make A Mistake Is Human." Ella lends the ditty her grand teeming tones in beautiful fashion. Tempo is slow and deliberate with the strong sincere lyric driving thru. Flipped we find "In My Dreams" another top notch dinking by Ella. Wordage parrots the title, with the great songstress piping the beautiful lyric in tones that score. We go for the top deck, "To Make A Mistake Is Human"—we're sure you will too.

"Carry Me Back To The Lone Prairie"
(2:56)

"In A Sentimental Mood" (2:49)

BUZZ ADLAM ORCH.
(MGM 10323)

● Pair of instrumental sides ably presented by the Buzz Adlam ork and the set up of "Carry Me Back To The Lone Prairie" and "In A Sentimental Mood." Top side might grab some moola, altho the material basically is not strictly juke box. The presentation of the song tho is top notch and first rate throughout. Light, fond metro, coupled with some mellow spots by the band makes this piece a dance item. On the flip, the crew come back with more pleasant wax, ably displaying their musical wares in fair mood. Wax is there for the asking—ops take it from here.

SLEEPER OF THE WEEK

"My Funny Valentine" (2:58)

"Temptation" (2:58)

GORDON JENKINS ORCH.

(Decca 24523)

GORDON JENKINS

● Here's another Decca winner, with orkster Gordon Jenkins in the driver's seat on one of the most beautiful renditions of this great favorite. Ditty, "My Funny Valentine" is that famed Rodger & Hart melody that has won popularity thru the years. This rendition is one of the very best ever offered and should prove to be a sure-fire money winner for music operators. The azure pure simplicity and infectious quality of the tune worms its way right at the listener. Phono fans and juke box ops alike will find themselves playing this piece over and over again—it's that good. The lad who won such strong favor for his excellent performance on "Maybe You'll Be There," bounces back with another winning vocal performance on this piece. The piping of Charles La Vere is sure to win a tremendous amount of applause and account for some heavy coin in the boxes. Orchestral arrangement with floating strings and lilting passages of golden music make this platter all the more enticing. On the flip with the standard "Temptation," the Gordon Jenkins ork once again display their musical charm and brilliance. Mixed vocal chorus wails the ever-loving wordage in extremely attractive manner. "My Funny Valentine" should bloom and blossom into one of the biggest hits ever for phono ops. Get with it!

"Old Pardner" (3:01)

"There's A Happy Little Train" (2:59)

BOB HOUSTON
(MGM 10317)

● The heavy vocal spooning of balda-deer Bob Houston wraps around a pair here that might grab some coin. Altho the wax won't create havoc among juke box operators, it is offered in fair effective fashion. Titled, "Old Pardner" and "There's A Happy Little Train," Bob shows his fond vocal pitch in versatile style with this able performance. Top deck parrots the title, with Bob wailing the saga of the rusty old westerner. On the flip in brighter tempo and mood, Bob picks 'em up and lays 'em down on this gay choo choo story. Ditty might sit well with the younger set. Music ops who have a call for this brand might listen in.

"I've Been Hearing Rumors" (2:59)

"I Wish Upon A Star" (2:55)

RED McEWEN ORCH.
(Bullet 1063)

● More wax by the Red McEwen ork and the light set up of "I've Been Hearing Rumors" and "I Wish Upon A Star." Once again its the vocal strains of piper Walter Bloom that hog the limelight on the pair. The young balladeer seems destined to latch on to a hunk of fame and fortune via this dinking. Top deck in light tempo makes for extremely mellow listening pleasure, as Walt's fond pips warble the affectionate lyrics. Ditty is wrapped up in the lyric with the ork filling in to round out the side capably and effectively. Flip, "I Wish Upon A Star" shows the piper in first rate voice again. Lend an ear in this direction.

"Shoe Laces And Blades" (2:56)

"I Must Have Been Dreaming" (2:57)

FRANK GALLAGHER
(Dana 2030)

● Pair of sides by the rising Frank Gallagher and some wax that is definitely loaded with coin winning potential. Frank's deep vocal styling suits the pattern of the top deck in gala fashion, as the strong, sincere tones of "Shoe Laces And Blades" seeps thru the needling. Ditty is a story done up around the corner shoe lace peddler and is extremely meaningful. It's sad dreamy wax, capably handled by Frank. Melody is patterned after the stock "Vieni Sul Mar" and makes for infectious listening pleasure. On the flip with some ballad material, Frank once again shows his excellent pipes in grand style to "I Must Have Been Dreaming." Ork backing on the pair by the Ted Black gang, and vocal harmony by The Wayfarers adds luster to some shining wax. Music ops should take a look-see in this direction.

"My Best Girl" (2:48)

"My Little Grass Shack" (2:51)

FOUR CHICKS & CHUCK
(MGM 10319)

● Vocal harmony by the Four Chicks & Chuck and some cute wax headed music ops way is this bit titled "My Best Girl." Ditty is an oldie dating way back and should be remembered by veteran ops. Rendition here is in there in fine style all the way, with the light, fanciful lyrics and beat sounding thru in great fashion. On the flip with another once popular item in "My Little Grass Shack," the combo step out in great harmony once again. Tempo is merry with the platter making for loads of kicks and laughs. Ops who need a platter to brighten up their spots and boost phono take would do well by this thing.

"It Was My Lucky Day" (2:56)

"Lolita Linda" (2:49)

RED McEWEN ORCH.
(Bullet 1062)

● Some wax music ops can use as filler material is this bit rendered here by the Red McEwen ork. Titled "It Was My Lucky Day" and "Lolita Linda," Red and the boys display some effective musical wares about this duo. Vocal warbling on the pair by Walter Bloom highlights the side. Keep your eyes peeled on this lad, his pipes pitch pretty and steal the glory here. Top deck in fox trot tempo is a cute piece with the piping by Walter in there all the way. Flip, a waltz is fashionable as it stands. Ops who have the room in their machines might do well to lend an ear in this direction.

"We Got To Put Shoes On Willie"
(2:52)

"Never Make Eyes" (2:40)

THE KORN KOBBLERS
(MGM 10324)

● Here's a rollickin' comical disk that only The Korn Kabbler can put over with a new and refreshing twist that has lots of those qualities people like in many a location thruout the nation. The boys will get 'em laughin' and playin' the topside, "We Got To Put Shoes On Willie," over and over again. It's grand fun. And the way Stanley Fritts sells the hillbilly lyrics is sure to make a hit with listeners. It's good wax and deserves a place in your machines. On the flip, the boys have a moral in, "Never Make Eyes At The Gals With The Guys Who Are Bigger Than You." And once again Stanley Fritts sells the comedy lyrics right down the line for a smasher. This is one disk that's highly recommended. Folks like comedy mixed up with the bookie and be-bop beat and sentimental ballads which have been deluging machines. Just listen in and decide for yourselves.

ROUND THE WAX CIRCLE

NEW YORK:

Talk about opening nights—whew! Drop down to the Royal Roost and get a load of some of the greatest, and wildest music this side of heaven. The smash opening of Billy Eckstine, Charlie Ventura and the Charlie Parker group this past week at the Metropolitan Opera house was nothing short of sensational. All three thrilled a packed house thru the wee hours of the morning. On hand to say hello were Stan Kenton, Nellie Lutcher, June Christy, Freddy Robbins, Symphony Sid and a host of other trade people. The show is one on your must parade—don't miss it! . . . Congrats to Henry Stone of Pan-American Distributing Company, Miami, Fla., the proud pappy of an 8 pound gal, Sheri Lynn. . . The Washington Music Guild really stepped out this past week with their First Annual Dinner a whale of a success. On hand to entertain a packed house of celebrities were the Lionel Hampton ork, Sam Donahue, Alan Dale, Patti Page, Dave Denny, Freddy Slack and others. The music ops group also disclosed that "Sweet Georgia Brown" has been named the Record of the Week on disk jockey Eddie Gallagher's WTOP Moondial Record air-show. . . Phil Harris, who regularly delivers his rapid fire brand of music for RCA Victor Records is back on the networks again with his show, Sundays, NBC, 7:30 P.M. The program, again to spotlight Phil, Alice Faye and Frankie Remley and his guitar is sponsored this season by Rexall Drugstores. Phil, who just returned from Europe, brought home a shiny "Triumph" car from the other side of the drink, and drove it to the Coast at a leisurely tourist's pace. . . National Records acquired several masters recently, among them the click "Sweet Georgia Brown" backed by "Shine On Harvest Moon" by Mr. Jones and his Melody Men. . . And speaking of National, their flack chief Lee Magid seems to be hyping sales like mad via his work with Billy Eckstine. . . Wide awake booking agencies ought to pay attention to a young pianist named Nat Brooks, currently at the Blue Haven, Long Island. The lad offers some of the smartest rhythms around the town.

PHIL HARRIS

CHICAGO:

Eddy Howard due back at the Aragon again around Xmas, with Lawrence Welk's ork set to take over at the Trianon. Eddy's waxing of "Slow Boat To China" is starting to catch on in leaps and bounds thruout the Chi area. . . Joe Whalen of Whalen Music off to Kansas City for a few days on biz. Joe has the music boys simply ravin' about his new tune "Got No Time". All agree it's real juke box material. . . Barclay Allen and his ork, along with Larry Adler, opened the new show at the Empire Room of the Palmer House this past week. . . Thrush Evelyn Knight inked for the Empire Room beginning Jan. 6. Evelyn is currently riding high with "A Little Bird Told Me", and it looks like she has another hit in "Powder Your Face with Sunshine" backed by, "One Sunday Afternoon." . . The Harmonicats in town for a few days before taking off for the West Coast where they have a picture deal in the offing. . . We understand that Sam DiCara, publicity man for the Harmonicats, will resign his position as of Jan. 1st. . . Louis Armstrong and his great group, now featured at the Blue Note bistro, packin' 'em in with his terrific jazz styling. Ol' Satchmo's waxing of "Please Stop Playing Those Blues, Boy" is getting plenty of play from local disk jockeys. . . Rumors have it that Duke Ellington has received a very lucrative offer to say "yes" to a stint at the Blue Note. . . Sid Mills, of Mills Publishing Co., seen around town looking over Chi operations. . . Erwin Barg of Robbins Music tells us they have a new hit in a ditty titled, "Hold Me." Barg claims this one will be right up among the top ten on the music charts. . . Mercury Records punching out Eddy Howard disks, taken over from Majestic, at a very fast pace. . . Several big headliners arriving from both coasts for one nighters thruout this area. The list includes orksters Desi Arnaz, Leighton Noble, Johnny Long, Tony Pastor, and Ray McKinley.

TONY PASTOR

LOS ANGELES:

Songwriter Al Gannoway's new tune, "Baby, I Need You" will hit the boxes this week via Curt Massey on the Coast label and should be adopted by ops as their official plug platter. . . Besides being a good, bouncy number suitable to either race or general locations, the lyrics are what the doctor ordered with such lines as "The way a pop needs a sickle, a juke box needs your nickel, so put it in the box right now." . . . Finer words were never spoken, sung or written, eh? . . . Big news on the business front this past week was sale by Mercury Records of local distrib office to West Coast pressing outfit under name of Mercury Record Distributors of California, Inc. . . George McDonald is continuing at managerial post to date and we join him in hoping it continues that way. . . Overhead reducing deal was closed by Mercury toppers Irving Green and Art Talmadge while here on recent trip. . . Understand they plan to dipose of all distributing offices, including main one in Chicago, so firm can concentrate on talent lineup and greater production volume.

PEGGY LEE

Art Rupe of Specialty bubbling with good news over purchase of 10 press plant and mill, with monthly capacity of half million platters. . . Art says formula to be used in disks has been location tested for past year and proved much more durable than any other. . . He hopes soon to release an unbreakable record in the competitive price range. . . Still bubbling, Art told us that several of the bigger Eastern independent platteries have already approached him on a reciprocal pressing deal. . . Aladdin's Mesner Bros. riding high with Amos Milburn's "Bewildered" outselling all other hits on the Avenue 2 to 1 and Amos' "Chicken Shack Boogie" zooming nationally, now come up with a potential coin culler in Sarah Vaughn's heart throbbing "We're Through". . . Chatted with Dolphin's of Hollywood, one of Central Avenue's leading record shops and he said, "That 'Bewildered' had a hundred in this morning and was clean out by noon. . . Can't get enough of 'em". . . That shouldn't make Leo and Eddie Mesner or Milburn mad at anybody. . . Have ya' heard Peggy Lee's latest "Hold Me?" . . . mmm good.

Michigan Phono Ops Assn. Hypo's Detroit Newsboy Fund

Attorney Irving Ackerman Nabs "Music Ops Corner"

DETROIT, MICH.—The Michigan Automatic Phonograph Operators Association, in cooperation with the Old Newsboys' Goodfellow Fund, this past week designated a "Juke Box Operator's Corner" to be staffed by Attorney Irving B. Ackerman as part of the trade groups plan to aid the benevolent organization.

Mr. Ackerman will hold down the corner he had when he sold newspapers as a boy, with all receipts from the sale of newspapers going to the fund to aid the needy children of this city.

In an effort to stimulate attention to this worthy cause and increase contributions, the phonograph operators association has donated a phonograph which will play at Mr. Ackerman's corner.

Mayor Eugene Van Antwerp has declared December 13th as "Goodfellow Day," and has drawn attention to the tremendous part the music operators are playing to aid the fund.

The Old Newsboys' Goodfellow Fund came into existence thirty-five years ago and has become one of the most outstanding benevolent organizations in the country. The goal of the Detroit group is $251,000 to provide for 50,000 deserving children in this area.

See Possible Stopper In Ban Settlement

NEW YORK—Music trade circles were buzzing this past week with the widely circulated report that a possible stopper in the settlement of the recording ban dispute might arise should the Taft-Hartley Law be repealed or revised prior to adjudication by the Attorney General's office of the plan proposed by joint council of the American Federation of Musicians and representatives of the phonograph recording industry.

Hinge in the settlement might arise in the clause concerning the AFM's cancellation of the $1,300,000 retroactive royalty payment. Should the Taft-Hartley Law be revised, cancellation of this payment would not have to come about. Diskers who negotiated the agreement with James C. Petrillo, assert that the agreement was made in good faith and will be carried out by Petrillo and the union along those lines. The plan drawn by the music industry has been reposing in the Attorney General's office for more than a month now. The American Federation of Musicians cancelled all royalties due the union from January 1 to September 30th of this year, with royalty payments scheduled to start on the new payment scale dated October 1st, when a settlement is reached.

Benny Goodman Bows With New Band In Syracuse. Music Trade Junket Lauded

NEW YORK—Orkster Benny Goodman, the original "King of Swing," unveiled his new band in Syracuse, N. Y., this past week with much fanfare provided by the music trade.

Goodman chartered an American Airlines plane and played host to some 40 odd tradespeople, including trade magazine editors, advertising agency reps, recording company execs, booking agency people and others who were in the group which took off for Syracuse on Friday, December 3.

That the new Goodman band was immediately hailed as a smash was easily seen in the sensational grosses Benny and his boys have racked up at the Hotel Syracuse.

The new ork, comprising some fine talent and listing 22 men is scheduled to headline the New York Paramount Theatre's annual big New Year's show, starting December 15, along with the Paramount Bob Hope flicker "Paleface."

Widely applauded was the realistic view concerning modern jazz and bop that Goodman has lent the new ork. While offering several numbers along the modern jazz kick and with a decided bop twist, the music is nevertheless danceable. This was ably demonstrated by the entranced listeners and dancers who jammed the Hotel throughout his stay. The atmosphere provided by Mr. Swing was reminiscent of the lush days of the band business.

The new ork, the first Benny has fronted in two years, seems certain of clicking if the Hotel Syracuse date is any criterion.

"Bull Fiddle Boogie" (2:33)

"Chattanooga Bess" (2:21)

PEE WEE KING

(Victor 20-3232)

PEE WEE KING

● Lilted, lively, tuneful shellac that's bound to capture applause in location after location is cut here by Pee Wee King and his Golden West Cowboys. On the topside, "Bull Fiddle Boogie," with Redd Stewart to do a grand vocalizing stint and with Gene Stewart on the bull fiddle, is one of the best of the lively disks heard in many and many a moon. It's sure to get toes tappin' and hands clappin' to the lilted, tuneful melody and the grand warbling of Redd Stewart. Maestro Pee Wee King is to be congratulated for a very fine arrangement that has all the earmarks of a clickeroo. On the flip, "Chattanooga Bess," the boys once again cut a very lively hunk of shellac and back up their piper, Redd Stewart, very grandly. Either side of this disk can be labeled "topside"—it's that good. It's the sort of shellac that stirs the folks on spots 'round the countryside. Hang your hat and your dough on this one—it's got c-o-i-n pressed right into it and is sure to click on spot after spot.

"If I Knew Then What I Know Now" (2:32)

"I See A Change In You" (2:39)

CURLY WILLIAMS

(Columbia 20515)

● Curley Williams and his Georgia Peach Pickers sell one of the neatest arrangements of a slow and sentimental ballad in the standard "If I Knew Then What I Know Now" with Joe Pope and Sanford Williams harmonizing in a swell duet to put this side right over the top. It's grand harmony, very fine instrumental and lots of sweet melody. On the flip, with Curley Williams to do the vocal stint, the gang comes thru with another grand tune, "I See A Change In You." This is one platter that will get attention. Just listen in and decide for yourself.

"I'm Telling You" (1:55)

"It's Too Late" (1:50)

BILLY HUGHES

(4-Star 1282)

● Billy Hughes and his Pecos Pals come thru with two of the speediest spinning sides cut in many a month. On the top, "I'm Telling You," Billy produces some of best guitar work yet heard and sings this sad lament in slow time to make it an effective hunk of wax. Just note the spinning time of this disk. On the flip, with even a speedier side, "It's Too Late," Billy continues in the same slow, sentimental mood and produces wax that has lots and lots of possibilities. Here's a platter you should get next to.

"No Hope For Love" (2:30)

"You—Little Sweet—Little You" (2:43)

WILEY AND GENE

(Columbia 20520)

● You can always depend on Wiley and Gene to cut wax that will grab attention on any hill or plain location. And the boys don't fail the juke box ops with this platter. On the topside, "No Hope For Love," a slow, sentimental ballad, Wiley and Gene harmonize to produce sweet and melodic wax. It's surefire for many a location. And on the flip, a swell well known tune, "You—Little Sweet—Little You," the boys continue their grand harmony in the same slow, soft, sentimental tempo of the topside to bring to the juke boxes and their many fans a very swell hunk of shellac.

"Say You'll Be Mine" (2:30)

"Is It True" (2:38)

THE EAGLE RANGERS

(World 1504)

● Here are two sides that are gonna make 'em sit right up and applaud right out loud. The Eagle Rangers go to town on the topside, "Say You'll Be Mine," and with Bob Jennings to go some of the grandest, sweetest, sentimental piping heard in many a moon are gonna win themselves friends all over the countryside. It's a clickeroo for juke boxes in many a country spot. On the flip, "Is It True," one of the grand oldies, Harry Blair takes over the vocal and does just as great a job. It's six, two and even that here's a platter that will win plenty of coin from any spot. Latch on to this one.

"Our Love Will Never Die" (2:54)

"I'll See You In My Dreams" (2:08)

ADAMS BROTHERS

(Bullet 1061)

● The Adams Brothers go all out here to cut grand wax. With Bob Emmett to do the warbling, the topside, "Our Love Will Never Die," becomes one of the most outstanding of the slow, soft and sentimental ballads you've yet heard. The boy really does a grand, grand job here and is very capably backgrounded with some terrific guitar action. Just listen in to this side—it's got what you want. On the flip, an oldie that's known to one and all, a very grand tune, "I'll See You In My Dreams," the Adams Brothers cut one of the very best instrumentals yet heard. Latch onto this disk.

"It's My Life" (2:43)

"Win Or Lose" (2:50)

SAM NICHOLS

(MGM 10320)

● Sam Nichols and his Melody Rangers can always be depended on for grand wax. And Sam doesn't fail the juke box trade with this newest release of his. With lyrics that offer some grand sentiment and with Sam warbling them in gorgeous fashion, this side of shellac becomes one of the best he's cut in a long time. The backgrounding is fine. Here's a side that should meet with lots of approval everywhere. On the flip, "Win Or Lose," Sam turns to a slow and sentimental tear jerker with those sad and weepy lyrics, but, fitted for the audience that likes to listen in to 'em. Either side has lots of possibilities.

Signature Records Name New Sales Chief. Dan Priest Leaves Flack Post

NEW YORK—Signature Records, Inc., this past week announced the appointment of Marvin Adler to the post of Sales Manager. Mr. Adler replaces Jerry Ross, who had been sales chief of the plattery for more than two years.

Adler comes to Signature with a wide background of knowledge in the record business. He was formerly associated with Synthetic Plastics, manufacturers of Rocking Horse kiddie records.

Dan Priest, publicity and promotion chief for the firm also announced his resignation to accept a post with publicity department of the New York Central Railroad.

Disk Jockey Airs "The Cash Box" Charts

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF.—Foreman Bill Mackintosh, disk jockey at radio station KYA, this city, this past week disclosed the use of The Cash Box record reviews on his air-show.

"I am quoting your reviews as they appear in Cash Box each week and crediting the magazine too," Mackintosh stated. They seem to influence the voting in the top ten as you can see by this listing and my previous listings as well. Tunes that you compliment highly and those that you list as bullseye of the week invariably show high according to the number of cards and letters we get for them."

Mackintosh has one of the most popular folk and western dee-jay shows in this area and has a tremendous listening audience. He has been widely applauded by music ops for his untiring efforts and cooperation in their behalf.

Marks Music Renews Contract With BMI

The Edward B. Marks Music Corporation and Broadcast Music, Inc., recently announced the signature of a contract under which the performing rights of the music of the 55-year old publishing house will continue to be licensed by BMI until 1959.

Although during the period of renegotiation, changes of advantage to both parties were made, the basic agreement is, in effect, that which has been so satisfactory since 1940. The new contract, as did the old, gives to BMI the broadest possible rights to license the use of Marks music in the field of television.

"BMI, in finally deciding to continue our present arrangement with Marks, instead of purchasing the company, as we had an option to do," said Carl Haverlin, president of Broadcast Music, Inc., "has, we believe, made the soundest possible choice."

"The Marks operation has been eminently successful with Herbert E. Marks, president of the company, carrying on in the fine tradition of his father, the late Edward B. Marks."

RACE DISK O' THE WEEK

"The Best Of Friends" (2:55)
 "The Things You Do To Me" (2:40)
 SAVANNAH CHURCHILL
 (Columbia 30146)

SAVANNAH CHURCHILL

● The gorgeous artistry of the grand Savannah Churchill comes right to the fore to make the top-side of this disk, "The Best Of Friends," one of the best she's cut. The gal simply sells the sentimental lyrics in her very own sweet, soft style right over the goal line.

And to make the disk even greater, the excellent harmony of The Four Tunes backgrounds her beautifully. In addition, there's rhythm accompaniment which makes this shellac just about everything anyone could ever ask for. On the flip, with "The Things You Do To Me," the beautiful Savannah once again proves herself a great artist with a ballad that's right down her alley, sung as only she can sing it. Here, too, The Four Tunes come in for some of their swell harmonious backgrounding to the well known chirp to make this side another great cutting. This is one disk that will pull and hold play. It's got nickels, dimes and quarters pressed right into it and is sure-fire for the ops who've been seeking more of Savannah Churchill's recordings.

"Somebody Stole My Rose Colored Glasses" (2:45)
 "Pleasin' You" (2:36)
 THE STRIDERS
 (Capitol 15306)

● Opening with a new, sweet, soft and sentimental arrangement, The Striders sell a grand tune with even grander lyrics, "Somebody Stole My Rose Colored Glasses" to a fare-thee-well. A sure pop for any op who wants a harmonious platter that will grab attention on any one of his locations. The Striders handle this side with soft and easy harmony and turn it into an excellent recording. On the flip with "Pleasin' You," they once again do a very, grand job with this tuneful ballad. Here's a platter you can bank on. Just listen in.

"I'm Traveling Alone" (2:57)
 "God Bless My Daddy" (2:45)
 CECIL GANT
 (4-Star 1284)

● For some many moons now we've been looking forward to a new disk by Cecil Gant and we weren't disappointed when Cecil sent us, "I'm Traveling Alone." How this boy can finger those 88's and how that piano does ring right out of the disk—intimately—to come right into the room and sell the tune. But, just listen to Cecil warble this ditty, and you've got something for his many, many fans to drop plenty of coin to hear again and again. On the flip, "God Bless My Daddy," a sentimental tear jerker that Cecil does with just the right touch. It's a grand tune to listen to and will win him many more friends. Just latch on to this platter. It's got plenty on the ball.

"Big Fat Poppa" (2:40)
 "Blow Top Blues" (2:51)
 STERLING MALONE QUINTET
 (Bullet 287)

● With Ruth Passeur to chirp the tune, the Sterling Malone Quintet go right over the top with "Big Fat Poppa." This gal sure sells it for a fare-thee-well. It's in medium fast tempo and the lyrics are something to listen in to. The gal sure does love that "Big Fat Poppa." On the flip, "Blow Top Blues," Buddy Moore takes over the vocal job and shouts the blues to a grand tune that's bound to win lots of friends. It'll get 'em movin' 'round and noddin' with him. Just listen to this shellac—it's got plenty of possibilities.

"East Of The Sun" (2:55)
 "Interlude" (2:35)
 SARAH VAUGHAN
 DIZZY GILLESPIE ORCH.
 (Lenox 512)

● Here's a platter that's gonna have every youngster and many, and many an old timer chiming in to keep time with the be-bop rhythm of Dizzy Gillespie and the gorgeous chirping of the great Sarah Vaughan. Just grab an earful of "East Of The Sun" the way only Sarah can sell it and you've got golden shellac that's bound to click on spot after spot. This is Sarah as you like her, giving her all to make the cutting one of the very best. On the flip, "Interlude," a bit more of Gillespie and a little less of Vaughan, but, a topnotch disk from any standpoint and sure to win much applause from the big and growing bop crowds. Latch on.

"B. B. Boogie" (2:37)
 "H. P. Boogie" (2:49)
 JACK McVEA ALL STARS
 (Comet 100)

● Hadn't heard anything from Jack McVea in a long time. But, we feel lots better now, after listening to this new release by Jack and his All Stars. It's heated boogie beat all the way right down to your feet. And the way Jack sells "B. B. Boogie" is something to listen in to. In fact, either side, "H. P. Boogie" or "B. B. Boogie" are two instrumental cuttings that Jack can be very proud of for either one is gonna wrap his listeners right around his finger and make 'em shuffle right into the hottest, lowest, booggiest boogie beat cut into wax. Just listen to this release.

"You Gotta Be Careful" (2:38)
 "Bashful Bubber Blows" (2:33)
 GEORGE BARKLEY QUINTET
 (Uptown 100)

● If you like your boogie with speed and heat, and a tenor sax that'll make 'em sit right up and applaud, here's a platter that has all the earmarks of lots of merry spinning in many a spot all over the land. On the top-side, "You Gotta Be Careful," featuring Bashful Bubber Brooks on the tenor sax, a disk that features some very neat lyrics covering every day in the week and beatin' the boogie beat 'way out and gone, is one of the hottest platters cut in many a moon. On the flip, "Bashful Bubber Blows," an instrumental side, Bubber's tenor sax takes the disk right over the top and sells it for all its worth. Here's a platter worth your listening time—it's got the stuff to grab coins.

Mercury Records Shift Chicago Plant To St. Louis. Plans Being Made To Open Newark, N. J. Pressing Plant

Firm Sells Four Branches. 36 Of 39 Branches Now Operated By Plattery

CHICAGO—Mercury Records, Inc., this city, this past week closed its Chicago pressing plant and shifted its equipment to the firm's St. Louis factory.

The firm disclosed that the St. Louis factory has received 14 presses from the Chicago factory, and that the St. Louis pressing plant will handle all of the plattery's 12 inch classical output as well as their 10 and 7 inch kiddie line. The St. Louis factory may take on a portion of the firm's 10 inch shellac pressings as well it was learned.

The diskery also announced plans were immediately being drawn to reactivate the Newark, N. J. plant they acquired in the purchase of the now defunct Majestic Records assets. The Newark plant is scheduled to handle some 50 odd presses with its own matrix and milling plant. Acquisition of the plant, and its operation will expedite delivery of Mercury Records throughout the East and undoubtedly increase sales for the plattery.

Mercury recently also sold four of their independent distributor branches, and now operates 36 of their 39 branches. The firm disposed of their Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Dallas and Minneapolis branches; leaving only their Milwaukee, Chicago and Cleveland distrib outlets as indies.

WASH. MUSIC GUILD FIRST ANNUAL BANQUET IS SMASH SUCCESS

Capitol's Music Ops Give Awards to Maj. Robert Barrett, Police Comm.; Eddie Gallaher, Disc Jockey; Hirsh de La Viez, Pres. of Guild. Noted Artists Entertain. Funds Donated to TB Drive

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The Chantilly Room of the Hamilton Hotel, this city, was the scene of the first annual banquet of the Washington Music Guild, Tuesday evening, December 7.

Confirming the expectations of the entertainment and banquet committee of this association the crowds continued to pour into the Chantilly Room beginning early in the evening and enjoying themselves immensely until the wee hours of the next morning.

This music operators' association has almost 100 per cent membership in this area. The few non-members were invited and attended. Everyone in Washington's entertainment life was present.

It was, without any doubt, the most successful affair ever run in this area and the result was that all the members of the Guild have decided to make this an annual banquet and entertainment for their organization.

Most impressive were the three large gold awards which were given to the men in this city who had done the most for the coin machine business here.

First award went to Major Robert Barrett, Police Commissioner of this city who made a very fine speech thanking the Guild for the award and promising continued cooperation of the Police Department here to all Guild members.

Second award went to Eddie Gallaher, well known disc jockey here, for the fine work he has done in promoting greater juke box play thru his well listened radio program.

Third award went to Hirsh de La Viez, President of the Washington Music Guild and also President of the Coin Machine Operators of America, Inc., for his great work in making this one of the most outstanding operators organizations in the nation.

The press, radio, noted trade papers, and all connected with Washington's news bureaus, were present. All agreed that this was one of the finest affairs ever yet run here.

Entertainment won applause of all the coinmen, and lasted into the early morning hours. Lionel Hampton and his orchestra came as a body to entertain. A jam session took place with Sam Donahue winning one of the greatest hands of the evening for his work on his sax with Freddy Slack at the piano and Hampton at the drums.

Patti Page of Mercury Records won warm rounds of applause for her chirping. Alan Dale of Signature Records was tremendously received by the juke box ops. Dave Denney, Victor Records, hillbilly star, went right over the top with his rendition of "Bouquet of Roses" and other tunes.

A large and outstanding donation was made by the Guild to the TB drive here with members going all out to buy the Seals.

Because of the outstanding performance given by Lionel Hampton, with Sam Donahue and Freddy Slack, Hirsh de LaViez made an additional donation to the Xmas TB Seal drive from Hirsh Coin Machine Corp. in appreciation for this marvelous entertainment.

A great many came miles to be present at this affair. New York, Chicago, Baltimore and other cities were well represented. The Guild's banquet committee stated that next year the affair would be held in the grand ballroom of the Hotel Statler in this city.

Baltimore Amuse. Mach. Ops. Assn. to Hold 1st Annual Banquet On January 23rd.

BALTIMORE, MD.—Culminating a year of successful operation which began in January, 1948, the Association of Amusement Machine Operators of Greater Baltimore, is celebrating with its first annual dinner and dance on January 23, 1949, at the Sheraton Belyvedere Hotel, this city.

Headed by Irvin Rosenthal, president; Kyle C. Smith, vice president; Harry Rosenberg, treasurer; and Louis Wilner, secretary the A.M.O. have been concentrating on two major matters: to be alert to all tax matters, and thru adequate legal representation, prevent excessive and arbitrary taxation: and to promote a better understanding of operator problems. Thru the efforts of the association, great progress has been accomplished.

"Because of our great success during this past year," states Irv Rosenthal, "we are celebrating with this banquet, which we intend to conduct every year. We have put in a tremendous amount of effort, and every indication points to it being a complete success."

Shuffleboard Distribs in Assn.

ST. LOUIS, MO.—An association of Shuffleboard distributors is functioning here with great success, according to Joe Reynolds, secretary of the organization, which comprises four of the city's distributors. Many progressive plans are now being conducted to stimulate location play.

CMI To Hold Series Of Conferences On Legal, Legislative & Tax Problems At Show; 36 Additional Booths Opened

CHICAGO—The Show Committee of CMI (Coin Machine Institute), at a meeting December 7, announced plans for a series of conferences on legal, legislative and tax problems to be held during the CMI Show, January 17, 18 and 19, in Chicago.

These conferences will be held to serve the needs of individual operators and distributors of local coin machine associations. They will take place in the form of consultations with CMI's Legal and Tax Department, and will be held by appointment at CMI headquarters, one block from the Hotel Sherman.

"The object of these consultations will be to aid coinmen and their counsel in solving problems posed by the meeting of 44 state legislatures in the early months of 1949," advised Herb Jones, show committee chairman.

"The legislatures of most of the 44 states will be meeting at the time of the Coin Machine Show and other sessions will open within a few months," Jones explained.

"Many of these state bodies will be faced with tight budgets and some of them will turn to the coin machine industry for funds," he continued. "Operators and distributors will then be faced with the prospect of greatly increased taxes on their equipment.

"Because of the multiplicity of individual problems and the wide variety of state laws, an open discussion on a general basis of the legislative and tax problems would be of slight value to individual coinmen. As a result, the show committee decided to schedule personal conferences so that the problems of each coinman and local association could receive individual attention."

Jones also announced that thirty-six more display booths at the Hotel Sherman were made available for the CMI show, as the show committee opened additional space to prospective exhibitors.

"Opening of additional space was made necessary by a complete sell-out of the 172 booths in the Exhibition Hall, Mezzanine and Grand Ball Room of the hotel," stated Jones.

The new exhibit area is adjacent to the Exhibition Hall.

"Prospective exhibitors, either member or non-member, should not delay in making application for these booths," Jones warned. "We already have a waiting list of companies who want space and all 36 booths will be taken soon."

Tri-County Coin Machine Operators Assn. Formed

HOLYOKE, MASS. — The Tri-County Coin Machine Operators Association was formed by a meeting of operators from the surrounding territories here at a meeting at Holyoke on December 2.

Bill Beattie of Beattie Music Service, Holyoke, Mass., was elected to serve as president of the newly formed organization. At this time a committee are preparing a set of by-laws and rules, and are in touch with other associations for assistance.

The association will endeavor to educate the operators thruout the territory to the value of cooperation, and expect to build up a very strong membership.

One of the major problems facing the new group is a method of overcoming the recent decision handed down November 3 by the Massachusetts Supreme Court holding that "a free game is a 'thing of value'."

Further meetings have been scheduled for the end of the month, and officers expect a banner attendance.

May License Shuffleboards

ST. PAUL, MINN.—City Council here is reported considering a license fee for Shuffleboards. Minneapolis law makers and ops are watching the situation.

"One Two Three" New Genco Hit

CHICAGO—"You can tell the operators that if they had an idea that our two last games were 'sensational,' then I'm at a loss to describe our new five-ball 'One Two Three,'" enthused Meyer Gensburg, executive of Genco.

"While 'One Two Three' is entirely new in playing principle," continued Gensburg, "the game has been under the severest of operation tests, and we here are simply astounded by collection reports. Reports piling in from our distributors back up their praise with substantial orders. Deliveries are now being rushed thruout the country, and we shall keep the factory going night and day to supply the demand."

Bert Lane of New York City, who was visiting at the factory at the time, joined in with Gensburg in spreading the good word. "I've just had word from Harry Pearl, who is traveling the territory for me, and he is so excited he can hardly speak. So I told him to rush the orders in, and that'll tell the story."

THRU THE COIN CHUTE

EASTERN FLASHES

Personal glimpses from the Washington Music Guild affair . . . First thought that struck most who attended was that the affair was held on anniversary of Pearl Harbor, Dec. 7, which gives this evening (from now on regular annual evening for the Music Guild's affair) double meaning . . . Ben Rodins sorry that he didn't wear his tux, after seeing so many who attended wearing theirs . . . but Ben had already sent his down to Miami where he will rest for some weeks to come . . . Hirsh De LaVie was in his glory this big evening and, from what we hear, did over 90 per cent of the work necessary to make this affair a very grand success . . . Outstanding was Police Superintendent Major Robert Barrett, proving himself one grand sport when that gal singer called him up to the platform and sat on his lap while singing a tune to him . . . Harry Pearl attended, being in Washington at the time, and was seeking a conference with some of the distribs here on Genco's new great "One-Two-Three" game, "which," Harry claims, "is more sensational than any pinball Genco has yet made" . . . Mac Lesnick was present, even with laryngitis, and kept chewing on cracked ice all evening long so that he might get a few words over to some of the boys at his table . . . Irv Blumenfeld, Harry Hoffman and George Goldman came down from Baltimore to attend the affair and advised that their new building was getting "too small" for them . . . Eddie Gallaher of WTOP, one disc jockey who has won the admiration of all the juke box ops in this area, should be in the movies . . . the guy looked that handsome in his soup & fish . . . Ira T. Byram and Harold S. Klein of Silent Sales enjoyed themselves tremendously listening to some new jokes being told at their table . . . that guy Klein really picked himself a table . . . almost in the artists' laps . . . That last touch of "The Hamp's" (Lionel Hampton) during the jam session with Sam Donahue and Freddy Slack pulled the house down . . . The Hamp winding up his hot drumming by jumping right up on the drum for the very last beat . . . Operator Bob Cunningham talking about the new disks he features in all his race spots . . . Bob being just about the biggest of the race spot ops and now has his son in business with him, in addition to the big record store they also have in this man's town . . . No women present at this affair. "But," say the boys here, "next year we'll bring our wives, children, cousins and uncles."

A new jobbing firm opens on Coinrow—the firm is new, but the owners are well known, being connected with the trade for many years in the transportation end. Harry and Hymie Koepfel opened the Koepfel Distributing Company at 640 Tenth Avenue, between 45th and 46th Street. The Koepfel brothers are buying and selling all types of used equipment, mostly music. Their plan is to have one of the firm on the road with their truck, delivering or buying equipment, while the other remains at the office to take care of phone orders and the many other details . . . Dave Rosen, David Rosen, Philadelphia (AMI distributors) are now using the AMI trailer display truck, traveling their territory seeing the music ops . . . Barney (Shugy) Sugerman, Runyon Sales Company, pretty active with the distribution of AMI phonos, Solotone's new combination equipment, and Keeney's Cigarette Vendor. In addition, the sale of used music is brisk, Shugy reports. For Attention of Willie Blatt of Miami, Fla.: Shugy, his missus, and his two kids will drive down to vacation for a few weeks in your back yard. Should leave here Dec. 20.

George Ponser at the New York City Sales Offices of Shuffleboard Company of America, jubilant over the way orders for the "Nu-Art" Shuffleboard are piling in. "These orders are increasing every week" states Ponser, "and this past week was the best ever." . . . Received a postcard from the "honeymooning" Palastrants. AN OPERATOR WRITES

"... 'NU-ART' DeLuxe SHUFFLEBOARD is the best looking and also the best built board in this part of the country . . ."

Eau Claire, Wis.

Mr. George Ponser,
Shuffleboard Co. of America,
Linden, New Jersey

Dear Mr. Ponser:

I received my first NU-ART DeLuxe Shuffleboard last week.

We set it up and I will say it is the best looking and also the best built board in this part of the country. The different colored boards on each end make it very easy to see when your puck is in the first scoring zone. This also sets off the board and gives it beauty and stream-lining to the playing field.

If there is a better built board or a more beautiful board than a NU-ART, I would like to see it.

Enclosed please find check for additional boards as per my order.

Yours truly,

Frank Jordan.

THRU THE COIN CHUTE

CHICAGO CHATTER

The Christmas rush is in full swing here with everyone getting into the holiday spirit. Coinmen are making plans for Xmas parties and putting out the welcome mats to all visitors during the holiday season. There's something about this time of the year that makes people forget their troubles and join together in friendly cheer. The word now is, "Drop around and say hello."

Over at AMI Lindy Force and Joe Caldron keep busy, going along at an ever increasing pace. Lindy says, "Business is surprisingly good for this time of the year, with a steady stream of orders pouring in for AMI equipment." Monte West took off for Kansas City this past week where he plans to spend a few days conducting a training school for mechanics. John Haddock, prexy of AMI, is back in Grand Rapids after his recent trip out to the west coast. Paul Bleck of General Amusement & Novelty Co., in Wisconsin, visited AMI's loop offices.

Joe Beck of Telequiz Corp. very pleased with his new merchandising idea which is set to break sometime this week. It will be placed in various local amusement spots and, from what Joe tells us, it should be well worth seeing. . . . Bert Davidson and H. T. (Heinie) Roberts seen in a huddle here. A sure sign that somethin's up . . . What's this we hear about DeWitt (Doc) Eaton planning a trip to Chi. It's been a long time since Doc's been around town.

Al Stern of World Wide busy dreaming up some new ideas for the coming convention. You can always count on Al to come up with something novel . . . Morrie Ginsburg of Atlas Novelty in from California to attend the Seeburg showing. Morrie is looking fit as a fiddle and claims he never felt better . . . Frank Mencuri of Exhibit Supply wearing a big smile due to the many praises he's received on their display at the recent Amusement Park show held at the Sherman. The display, which was under Frank's direction, covered a whole corner of the mezzanine, and won Exhibit Supply, a booth award.

Roy Bazelon of Monarch Coin visiting down in sunny Florida. Roy claimed he wouldn't be able to spend much time basking in the sunshine but would have to hurry back to Chi and business . . . Genco Mfg. Co. has gone and done it again with another new game. From what we hear it's better than its predecessors. And that's sayin' plenty . . . Lots of activity over at O. D. Jennings & Co. with the plant going full speed ahead on their Live Jackpot and Monte Carlo series.

John Conroe of J. H. Keeney & Co. very pleased over the order returns on Keeney's cigarette vender. Conroe reported that Keeney is receiving country-wide placement on the the firm's cigarette units and have had to put up their production in order to meet the demand . . . Over at United Mfg. Co., Billy DeSelm and the boys are knee deep in plans for their Christmas party. You can take it from us, any party held at United is always a success. We hear from Billy that Conrad Meier of the Harcola Co., Buffalo, N. Y., was a recent visitor to the United factory.

At Chicago Coin, partners Sam Wolberg and Sam Gensburg, are all hepped up over the marvelous reaction of distribs and ops to their Shuffle-King and Re-Bound boards. Both agree that shuffleboards have a definite place in the coinbiz, and stated that this had been proven by the number of orders being placed for this type of equipment.

Bally Mfg. Co. was a bee hive of activity this past week with lots of visitors dropping around to say hello and look over the Bally line. Among the out of town coinmen visiting there were . . . Virgil Christopher of Baltimore; Lou Cate, also of Baltimore; Charles Garvey of Bowling Green, Ky., and T. R. King of Forest, Miss . . . Gordon Sutton of Illinois Simplex doing plenty of business in between plane rides . . . Jack Nelson anxiously awaiting the NAMA show where he will display his popcorn vender.

Spoke with Fred Mann, regional manager for Aireon, who is all enthused over the new Aireon tele-juke combo. Fred says, "It's hard to imagine just how well this new machine is clicking. The take on test locations has simply been terrific" . . . Murray Rosenthal of Coinex Corp. keeping busy, supplying the demand for his firm's equipment. Murray reports he's getting lots of nice attention on ray guns.

Barbara Humphrey over at CMI really in a rush these days attending to last minute preparations for the convention. CMI's offices have been flooded with a steady stream of phone calls, she says, everyone asking questions about the coming show . . . We hear that Bell-O-Matic distribs received very lovely carving sets for Thanksgiving presents this year. As Grant Shay put it, "Instead of sending out the usual turkeys, we send them something to carve the turkey with." Boots Strange of Southern Vending Machine Co., Danville, W. Va., and Marvin Bland, Indiana Music Co., Terre Haute, Ind., were recent visitors at Bell-O-Matic.

We want to take this opportunity to say just a few words about one of the industry's well known advertising agency men—Fred Kleiman. Fred spent over two weeks working like a beaver collecting records, magazines, gifts, etc., to bring out to the boys at the Hines Hospital. This is one great, grand job, Fred, and we're mighty, mighty proud that it was one of our own coin machine industry's admen who remembered the boys who are today spending their lives in hospital beds and in wheel chairs. We do hope, Fred, that you will, next time, include all of us in the industry and let us help with the presents you obtain free from Chicago's business men and also help you take them out there to those GPs who haven't forgotten. Let's all of us make December 7 (the anniversary of Pearl Harbor) the day the entire coin machine goes out to all Vet hospitals everywhere in the nation to remember the wounded and crippled soldiers, sailors, marines and airmen who gave so much.

Please mention THE CASH BOX when answering ads—it proves you're a real coin machine man!

CALIFORNIA CLIPPINGS

That tie score between Notre Dame and USC left many of the Coin Row second guessers fit to be tied . . . We talked to Jack Simon, Charlie Fulcher and several other distribs just before they took off for the Big Game . . . Despite any local loyalties, the boys were so sure that the great Eastern team would top SC by several touchdowns that they didn't even venture a few short bob on the outcome . . . When we told Mills' man Fulcher what a lucky stiff he was—going to the game, he opened his eyes wide and said, "Wish I'd known you'd like to go . . . had a spare ducat and didn't know what to do with it—till an hour ago when a friend from Oakland dropped in" . . . What d'ya think of that? . . . Well, it was good listenin' anyway . . . and a cold, windy day to be out in . . . How's that for sour footballs?

Phil Robinson accompanied Jack Simon to the game and must have taken a verbal shellacking from the Sicking exec afterwards as the Chi Coin rep figured the Irish would run the Trojan horse ragged . . . Paul Laymon was also game bound and expressed faint hope for the home team though he wished them well . . . Getting on another kind of ball game, Paul's righthand man Charlie told us how well Bally's "Citation" was going . . . The Royal Shuffleboard also off to a fast start, Charlie reported . . . Joe Peskin back to Chicago tending to his business there and Paul Silverman out checking a location . . . On tap was an ace game man from up North whose association with J. Peskin Distribs may be announced shortly . . . Georgie Warner on deck at Automatic with Dannie Jackson and Sammie Donin out on biz . . . and who says a football game can't be business . . . Georgie credited out of state buyers from Wyoming, Montana and Nevada, of course, with boosting the action at Automatic.

Plenty of good looking used equipment available at Aubrey Stemler's clearance sale at bottom prices . . . See next week's ad for details . . . Long talk with Ray Powers brought out much of interest and tagged Ray as a fellow who calls his shots the way he sees 'em, which in our book makes him a good guy to do business with . . . Many of L. A. and San Francisco distribs planning to attend the CMI show in Chicago January 17-19 and those interested in the vending end are always packing their bags for the NAMA mid-December jaunt to the Windy City . . . Checked several local ops for reaction to the Hirsh De La Viez letter and invite, as appeared in The Cash Box, to join the Coin Machine Operators of America, Inc. . . . Most of the boys liked the letter's tone, its direct manner and definite listing of what's to be done, why and how . . . The only question in some of the ops' minds is—"When?" but they still figure it's worth a buck to find out . . . Seen on the Row this week: John Nelson from Van Nuys . . . San Berdo's A. T. Felkins . . . C. B. Corenblum of L. A. . . . Bernard E. Knott from El Monte . . . Colton's Ed Benjamin and J. H. Hopkinson . . . Gene Anderson from Oceanside . . . Balboa's G. Denlinger.

Gil Smith of Fargo, North Dakota, drove into Minneapolis for a few days, visiting his brother Phil Smith, who operates from Minneapolis . . . Charlie Sersen of St. Cloud, Minnesota, spending the day in Minneapolis on a quick business trip.

Rain visited the Twin Cities early Sunday morning, and later turned into snow, with the thermometer dropping steadily. The highways are very icy, and traveling is very poor. Operators in the Northwest are keeping off the highways until the ice disappears . . . Lawrence Sieg of Augusta, Wisconsin, in Minneapolis for just the day . . . Gus Loehr of Melrose, Minnesota, also in Minneapolis for the day, buying equipment. Gus is going back into the operating business, slowly, but steadily . . . Frank Davidson of the Peerless Novelty Company, Spooner, Wisconsin, in town for the day accompanied by Mrs. Davidson who spent the day downtown in department stores, doing her Christmas shopping.

Paul Felling of Sauk Center, Minnesota, in Minneapolis for just the day . . . Jimmie Keller, formerly with several distributors in the Cities, and mechanic for several operators, is now with the Midwest Coin Machine Company, St. Paul, Minnesota . . . Morris Berger of the N'West Sales Company, Duluth, Minnesota, took the train into the Twin Cities. Because of the icy roads, he would not take a chance driving his new '48 Buick . . . Lowell Krych, for many years mechanic for Doug Gleason of the Acme Sales Company, Minneapolis, bought out Doug Gleason and is now owner of the route. Lowell is very well known in Minneapolis, and everyone wishes him the best of luck . . . Harry Galep of Menomonie, Wisconsin, in town for the day with his nephew, looking at the new SHUFFLE KING at the Hy-G Music Company.

ST. LOUIS, MO.

An association of shuffleboard distributors has been formed here, with Joe M. Reynolds heading a four man group. Reynolds is the St. Louis manager for the St. Louis Shuffleboard Sales Company, with headquarters in Ideal Novelty Company. A meeting is held twice each month at the Claridge Hotel, with the sole purpose of promoting shuffleboard as a sport. Joe reports that to-date 120 boards have been placed in this area. Thru the efforts of this association, locations are forming "House Leagues" with from 6 to 8 teams of 2 men each competing for prizes over a 20-week period. Coinmen here are getting more enthusiastic over the money-making possibilities of this type of equipment.

HOW TO USE THE "C. M. I. BLUE BOOK"

FOREWORD: Many times, wide differences appear in the high and low prices of certain equipment. Like any true reporter The C.M.I. Blue Book can only feature the market prices as they are quoted. The C.M.I. Blue Book acts exactly the same as the market quotation board at the Stock Exchange—posting the prices as they are quoted for the past week, regardless of how much they may seem to be out of line. Some prices do not change for months. The C.M.I. Blue Book, rather than show no price, retains the last known quotations for such equipment so that the subscriber at least has the last known prices as a basis to work with. Prices continue to be very widely divergent these days. Someone on the West Coast may feel a certain machine worth $150.00 whereas someone on the East Coast may think it worth but $75.00. Of course, condition, serial, appearance, demand, territory, quantity, etc., must all be taken into consideration. The C.M.I. Blue Book reports each quotation exactly as it is made and depends on the subscriber to make average price adjustments to fit the peculiarities of his territory.

METHOD: The C.M.I. Blue Book should be read as follows: First price listed is lowest price for the week: Second price listed is highest price. Where only one price appears this should be considered lowest price.

The new MYSTERY "MULTIPLE" and GUARANTEED ODDS are sweeping the country like wild-fire. Odds "multiply" on mystery basis... AND NEVER DROP BACK TO A LOWER BRACKET... always either advance or remain as high as on previous coin.
